

To celebrate Waltham Forest, First London Borough of Culture, 2019 the Waltham Forest History and Heritage Network invite you to

Radical Childhoods in Waltham Forest

St Peter's Church in the Forest, London E17 3PP

Saturday April 6th, 2019, 2- 5 p.m.

Programme:

2. p.m. "Radical Childhoods in Waltham Forest, c 1600-1900"

Dr Mary Clare Martin (University of Greenwich, WFHHN)

3. p.m. "Finding your family history through parish registers"

Barrie Burton (Waltham Forest Family History Society)

3.20 p.m. Activity slot. Choice of the following:

Barrie Burton will be available with his database of St Peter's parish registers to help anyone interested trace their family history

David Boote (Waltham Forest History and Heritage Network) will lead a walk entitled "Children and young people round and about St Peter's and Forest School"

Churchyard tour with Mark Carroll and Tim Valder-Hogg (Waltham Forest Family History Society)*

4.15 p.m. "Growing up in Waltham Forest in the 1930s"

Mark Carroll (Waltham Forest Family History Society)

We will sing protest songs throughout the afternoon, led by guitarist and campaigner Louis Martin (Fossil Free Newham)

Children are welcome and activities will be provided

Tea and cake will be available throughout

For further details, see <https://walthamforesthistorianandheritage.net/>

Follow us on Twitter: @WFHistoryNet #wferitage supporting @wfculture19 #wfculture19 .

Facebook: @WalthamForestHistoryandHeritageNetwork

Instagram : #walthamforesthistorianetwork